

IAATI CERTIFIED VEHICLE CRIME SPECIALIST RENEWAL APPLICATION

INSTRUCTIONS:

This form is to be used to apply to renew an existing IAATI Certified Vehicle Crimes Certificate if all the following criteria are met:

- a. The applicant's current certification certificate is still valid or has expired within 60 of the date this application is submitted,
- b. The applicant has provided documentary evidence that they have achieved 100 points of continued training and participation in the industry since their last certificate was granted, and
- c. They are still an active member of IAATI. If the applicants IAATI membership has lapse, the applicant must renew their membership prior to submitting a certification renewal application.

If all three of these criteria are not met, the applicant will, be required to complete a new Application for Certification, including paying the application fee and re-sitting the exam, i.e. Addendum A: Application for IAATI Vehicle Crimes Specialist Certification

Applications for renewal more than 60 days after the expiry date of a previously held certificate will be required to reapply as a new applicant, pay the full application fee and re-sit the exam.

Renewal Fee:

$US25 (or $US10 for Latin American and Southern Africa Branch members).

Upon receipt of this application the IAATI Certification Committee will review and verify the 100 points of continuing education and employment in the industry since the issue date of your previous certificate. If approved your payment will processed and a new Certification Certificate will be issued.

As with the previous certificate, your renewed certificate is only valid for a period of 3 years and is conditional upon the holder maintaining their IAATI membership during the term of their certificate. If your IAATI membership lapses for a period or more than 60 days the certificate will become invalid and you will need to reapply for certification, including resitting the test.

No refunds will be provided after the payment has been processed, including if the applicant elects not to sit the exam. Failure to take the exam within one year of acceptance date will result in forfeiture of the application process.
