

IAATI's 56th Annual International Training Seminar 2008

SYDNEY AUSTRALIA 3-7 AUGUST 2008

Vehicle Theft - Global Crime

Partnership Strategies to Prevent, Detect & Investigate

Sydney, Australia is the venue for IAATI's 56th Annual Training Seminar 2008. Each year IAATI International conducts an annual training seminar offering the latest information on auto theft investigation. This seminar is usually held on the North American continent or in Europe and was last held in Australia in 1997. Sydney 2008 will particularly highlight partnership strategies to prevent, detect and investigate auto theft. This four day conference is expected to attract over 350 delegates from all parts of the world to discuss current vehicle theft issues and trends, prevention initiatives, the latest technological and policy solutions, and practical training in vehicle theft detection and investigation. This seminar will be of particular interest to law enforcement, vehicle manufacturers, insurers, transport and registration authorities, customs, private investigators, motor trades, forensic locksmiths, crime prevention practitioners, academics and researchers, manufacturers of vehicle security products.

Sydney is without a doubt one of the most beautiful cities in the world. It has a reputation for friendly people, a cosmopolitan lifestyle, wonderful shopping and world-class entertainment. Our magnificent harbour, state-of-the-art conference venue, Sydney Convention & Exhibition Centre, renowned Opera House and sunny beaches combine to make Sydney a unique destination for the 56th Annual Training Seminar.
