

International Association of Auto Theft Investigators

2015/16 Achievements

3,664 members based in

66 countries around the world

IAATI hosted 17 training events providing 306 classroom hours of teaching and networking opportunities for 2,019 attendees

Published 3 issues of our printed magazine APB (average of 50 pages per issue)

Commissioned the development of a new International website (to be launched in August 2016)

Released Legislation Update – an update of vehicle crime related legislation from around the world

Launched the IAATI Seminar App for mobile devices

Uploaded conference presentations and training material to IAATI's members only File Library

IAATI's 2015-2020 Strategic Plan released

IAATI also sponsored and supported 21 other training events around the world, including Interpol's 2nd Global Conference on Vehicle Crime

Published 6 issues of our e-newsletter Auto Theft Today (average of 49 pages per issue)

Latin American Branch hosted their inaugural Annual Training Seminar in Buenos Aires, Argentina

Released the Auto Theft Prevention Authority (ATPA) Best Practise 'Standards'

IAATI — providing training and support to vehicle crime investigators for 64 years